Sponsoring Opportunities

Our conference is an excellent opportunity to present your company for the following reasons:

- The meeting deals with statistics in all its aspects, ranging from collection of regular series of data to inferential problems of analysis
- Both applied and theoretical aspects of statistics will be addressed by internationally renowned speakers and scientists local to Luxembourg.
- One day will be devoted to official statistics and another to statistics in research
- The meeting aims to attract statisticians, bioinformaticians, researchers, epidemiologists, and sociologists.

Conference Venue

Hôtel Parc Bellevue - Luxembourg

In its green, quiet setting the hotel offers a unique view of the town of Luxembourg. Close to the business center, the shopping malls and the old town, it is easy to reach and a great base for both business travellers and tourists.

Hospitable and warm welcome, elegant and cozy decor, a real gem for successful stays.
